Have a Taste

When shopping this week be sure to stop at the Tuberose demonstration at the leading grocers of your town.

Taste-sample the carefully selected sun-ripened fruits or the tender, appetizing, well-cooked, tender vegetables.

Once you have sampled these super-flavored foods your pantry will never again be without a supply of

TUBEROSE is the pick of the pack

Ever since the first Tuberose can was sold 33 years ago every can has contained the first or "fancy" grade, selected where the product is grown to perfection.

You can buy over 70 food products under this label, with the assurance that you are getting the best. Yet Tuberose costs but a trifle more than ordinary canned goods.
